

Edmund A. Carley BIO

Edmund Carley, Postmaster Lincoln IL, was elected, August 19th, 2021, as National President of the United Postmasters and Managers of America; his three-year term began November 1st, 2021. Edmund has 22 years of postal experience, 13 as Postmaster, specializing in City Delivery, Labor Relations, and Leadership Development. Graduating from the Associate Supervisor Program in 2006, Edmund transitioned from City Letter Carrier to Supervisor, Customer Service. On July 4th, 2008, he was promoted to Postmaster level 20 and led the Lincoln office through many changes and innovations during the turbulent last decade. Mr. Carley has served UPMA members continuously since 2010 at both the Chapter and National level, holding many offices including Chapter President, National Legislative Chairman, and National Executive Vice President. He also has extensive UPMA member representation experience, including many federal mediations and serving on the last two pay consultations with the United Postal Service. Edmund comes from a family of educators; born in New York City, he spent his formative years in England before returning to the United States in 1991. A long-time resident of the Springfield, IL area, Mr. Carley is the single father of one daughter, Lucy, currently finishing college. He plays golf (badly) and enjoys (mostly) watching the Chicago Bears, Cubs, Bulls, and Blackhawks.