What made them go beyond the call of duty??

- THE AFRICAN AMERICAN EXPERIENCE. African Americans hold a unique place in the history of Dallas. This history, which began around 1842 is chronicled in Dallas: The African American Experience Self-Guided Tour of Civil Rights Historical Landmarks. For mor information: VisitDallas.com/CivilRightsTour.
- MCKINNEY DOWNTOWN SQUARE. 111 North Tennessee, Historic downtown McKinney is a great place to shop and dine, with 120 unique shops and restaurants. Just a short distance away.
- BEST HISTORIC SMALL TOWN – GRANBURY TEXAS. (YES, I KNOW! I'm a little partial to this little town.) Only one hour and sixteen minutes for the Sheraton. Granbury is the home to the most historic courthouse square in Texas, and it has more than 40 one-of-a-kind stores, with dozens of restaurants and eateries.
- THERE ARE MANY MUSEUMS TO VISIT IN DALLAS, AND SOME ARE VERY NEAR TO OUR HOTEL. My advice would be for you to google and choose the one(s) that you prefer.
- THE GEORGE BUSH PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY
- SOUTHFORK RANCH (The World's Most Famous Ranch) Horseback riding is also available.
- FORT WORTH STOCK YARDS. (Featuring a cattle drive with real Texas Longhorns every day at 4 pm.)
